

Special Course
(TAO Congress - PostCourse)
Sunday, 27. September 2020
Graz, Austria - Steiermarkhof

Acupuncture Point Combinations for the Five Element (Wǔ Xíng) Archetypes and Five Spirits (Wǔ Shén)
David HARTMANN

PROGRAM:

Aristotle once said, “The whole is greater than the sum of its parts”, and this couldn’t be more relevant when it comes to understanding the acupuncture points used in treatment.

The workshop will be constructed in the following manner:

8am-9.30am – discussing each of the Five Element Archetypes and acupuncture point combinations.

9.30am-10am – morning break.

10am-11.30am – practical application of the acupuncture point combinations by participants.

11.30am-12.30pm – lunch.

12.30pm-2pm – discussing each of the Five Spirits (Wǔ Shén) and acupuncture point combinations.

2pm-2.30pm – afternoon break.

2.30pm-4pm – practical application of the acupuncture point combinations by participants.

Join me for this fascinating workshop!

LECTURER: David HARTMANN

He is an acupuncturist and Chinese medicine practitioner that lives in Brisbane Australia. He has been practicing since 1997 and upgraded his qualifications with a Masters of Acupuncture in 2009 at the Southern Cross University in Lismore, Australia. David is a contract academic at Endeavour College of Natural Health in Fortitude Valley, Australia, where he lectures students in a Bachelor of Chinese Medicine degree.

He is also a keen researcher and writer and has written two Chinese medicine textbooks: 'The Principles and Practical Application of Acupuncture Point

Combinations' released in September 2019 with Singing Dragon; and 'Acupoint Dictionary 2e' released in 2009 with Elsevier Churchill Livingstone.

David has presented at a lot of conferences worldwide. Finally, David has also done a significant amount of research on the Qi Qing (Seven Emotions) and the Wu Shen (Five Spirits) of which he would be keen to present his findings on.
